Task Description/Overview

Students are to create an original written work that represents their understanding of the concepts and the writing techniques in 'The Conventions of Genre' unit. They will also complete a reflection sheet on their writing process and implementation of literary techniques and conventions.

Detailed Assessment Task Description

Throughout the unit, you will complete a range of written pieces based on different text types and genres.

HAND IN – Part 1: Creative Writing (10 marks)

This task requires you to:

- Submit ONE of your best compositions from the genre unit.
- Proofread, edit, and publish your writing to ensure your best work is submitted. You may submit your work for feedback to improve your piece.

You will be given time throughout the term to work on this piece and will also be given 2 lessons near the due date to complete a published copy of the work.

Submission instructions:

The final submission will include one published piece you have chosen from the 'Genre' unit. The portfolio piece can be either a hard copy or printed.

OR

On CANVAS, submitted by the end of class, period 1 at 10:10 AM. It can be found under Assignments – "Creative Writing Task".
