Writing a Bibliography

What is a bibliography?

A bibliography is an alphabetical list of the sources (books, magazines, newspapers, CD-ROMs, websites, interviews, etc.) – that you have used to prepare your assignment or presentation. It appears at the end of your work.

Why do we write bibliographies?

- To acknowledge our sources as not doing this is plagiarism
- To give others information to identify and consult your sources
- To make sure the information is accurate

What if we don't include a bibliography?

We may be accused of plagiarism (that is, stealing another person's ideas or writing) If so, we may lose some or all of the marks for an assignment or a course
